

Interfaith Dialogue in Israel

with

Dr Debbie Weissman, Issa Jaber and Rula Shubeita

from the

Inter-religious Coordinating Council in Israel

Thursday 20th August, 1pm – 2:30pm

Old Teachers College Lecture Room 448

Religiously-motivated violence has been a significant deterrent to the progress of the Middle East peace process, and yet little to no attention has been paid to the Israeli and Palestinian religious communities, and few attempts have been made to utilise religion as a tool for peace and reconciliation.

The mission of the Interreligious Coordinating Council in Israel (ICCI) is, therefore, to harness the teachings and values of the three Abrahamic faiths and transform religion's role from a force of division and extremism into a source of reconciliation, coexistence, and understanding. To accomplish this, ICCI works with youth, women, and religious leaders to promote Jewish-Arab coexistence and peace-building projects.

Supported by the Department of Hebrew, Biblical and Jewish Studies, the Department of Arabic and Islamic Studies, the Centre for Peace and Conflict Studies and the Department of Studies in Religion.
The ICCI visit to Australia is sponsored by AIJAC.
