

Sydney Democracy Forum 2009 Program

Wednesday 5 August
Time: 5pm to 7pm
Place: Room 346, New Law
Building, University of Sydney

Ben Kiernan - Yale University, USA

“Blood and Soil: Genocide in World History”

In this illustrated lecture, Prof. Kiernan examines the ideologies behind outbreaks of mass violence from the classical era to the present, focusing on worldwide colonial exterminations from the Caribbean to Korea, and twentieth-century case studies including the Nazi Holocaust and genocides in Cambodia, Rwanda, and Darfur.

Friday 7 August
Time: 3pm to 5pm
Place: Room 115 East Ave
Conference and Lecture
Theatre Centre, University of Sydney

Graeme Gill - University of Sydney

Sarah Phillips - University of Sydney

Martin Krygier - University of New South Wales

“Pro-Conditions of Democracy” and “Iraq and the Prospects for Democracy”

Friday 4 September
Time: 3pm to 5pm
Place: Refectory, Main
Quadrangle Building,
University of Sydney

Stewart Firth - Australian National University

“The Fiji Military Forces and Democracy in Fiji”

Stephanie Lawson - Macquarie University

“Indigenous Nationalism and the Politics of Ethnicity in Fiji”

The University of Sydney

All Sydney Democracy Forum lectures are free and open to academics and public alike
Registration is essential

RSVP to: Zoe Morrison - sdf@usyd.edu.au